

CAN'T STOP RAVEN ABOUT LIBRARIES

FEBRUARY 27 – MARCH 2, 2008 • FAIRBANKS PRINCESS RIVERSIDE LODGE

Invitation to Conference:

Shakespeare wrote "Now is the winter of our discontent, made glorious summer by this sun of York." Join us in Fairbanks for AkLA 2008, where in an Alaskan twist our ravens will bring the sun to make glorious our time together! From the challenges of dealing with the USA Patriot Act to Library Services to Indigenous Populations in the 21st Century to the latest Internet trends, it's all for exploring at AKLA '08.

Dynamic speakers and presenters drawn from all aspects of the library world will provide eye-opening opportunities for professional growth. Exhibitors of all sorts will be on hand to show their latest wares. And no AkLA conference can be complete without enchanting entertainment, tantalizing tours, and plenty of chances to return home with fabulous mementos from the Silent Auctions and AKLA Sales Tables.

AkLA '08 will have everything under the sun that you've grown to appreciately expect from your annual conference – and more! The World Ice Art Championships and the 31st Festival of Native Arts will be underway during your time in Fairbanks. Shakespeare may have thought that "Winter tames man, woman and beast," but in here in the Heart of Alaska, we know better.

James Huesmann and Greg Hill, Vice Presidents for Conference 2008

TRAVEL AND ACCOMMODATIONS

REGISTER EARLY to ensure your space
at conference
events!

TRAVEL: If you are traveling by air to Fairbanks for the conference, you may wish to make your arrangements through the Alaska Airlines Group and Meetings Desk to obtain a 10% discount. Just call 1-800-445-4435 and mention discount code CMR9830. If you are booking online, go to www.alaskaair.com, and use discount code ECCMR9830. These discount codes are good for travel dates: February 25 - March 5, 2008.

After you have made your reservation, please send your ticket number (it starts with 027...) to Ann McCann (amccann@northstar.k12.ak.us). For every forty reservations made this way, AkLA gets one free roundtrip on Alaska Airlines which we can use to bring Outside speakers to Alaska.

CONFERENCE HOTEL: The Fairbanks Princess Riverside Lodge is the headquarters hotel for Conference lodging and events (be sure to register for these!). It is conveniently located near the airport, with a free airport shuttle. The conference rate is $75, plus an 8% bed tax (for a total of $81.00/night) for single or double occupancy. One or two additional people are $10 extra each. The toll-free number for conference reservations is 1-800-777-1725 ext. 2, mention the conference code TNF/L8058. Rate is good February 27th through March 2nd. Staying at the conference hotel helps AkLA meet conference costs by defraying part of the meeting room rental fees and by giving us one complimentary night for every 25 paid nights (which we use for our special speakers). The entire hotel now has wireless Internet access.

COLLEGE CREDIT THROUGH UAA

Are you interested in receiving Continuing Education credit for attending the 2008 AkLA Conference? The one credit Continuing Education course, "Issues and Trends in Librarianship: Learning Through Libraries," will be offered by the University of Alaska Anchorage during Alaska Library Association Conference 2008. LS A590 satisfies the Alaska Department of Education requirements for recency credits for certification renewal. Coursework requires students to document and summarize sessions attended, as well as to write a 3-5 page paper. Assignments are due March 31, 2008. Sign up and pay for the course when you register for the conference. Attend the College Credit Meeting and Discussion, Friday 7:00 AM – 7:45 AM. For more information, contact Deborah Mole, 786-1967, afd1m2@uaa.alaska.edu.

TRAVEL GRANTS

Travel grants are available to help defray Conference attendance expenses for AkLA members who are librarians, paraprofessional staff, volunteers and board members. Complete information for all travel grants is available on the Conference Web Page: <http://www.akla.org/fairbanks2008/travel.php>.

AkLA is offering up to $500 to a library employee, volunteer or board member from a library in the Interior and Northern Regions to assist with travel and lodging expenses incurred while attending the 2008 AkLA Conference. The conference registration fee will be waived for the award recipient. See http://www.akla.org/fairbanks2008/travel_grants/regional_travel_grant2.php for more information, or contact Aja Razumny, 888-820-4525, aja.razumny@alaska.gov, or Deborah Mole, (907) 786-1967, afd1m2@uaa.alaska.edu. Deadline is Tuesday, January 15, 2008.

School libraries are eligible for one of 20 at large AkASL Travel Grants. This year the grant will pay for transportation, conference fees and hotel up to $1,100. The application form is available at <http://www.akla.org/akasl/assoc/travelgrantapp.htm>. For more information, contact Suzanne Richards, (907) 543-4440 ext. 245, suzanne_richards@lksd.org. The deadline for grant applications is Saturday, December 15, 2007.

Public libraries may use their Continuing Education Grants to attend AkLA. Up to $1,000 is available to reimburse travel and registration expenses. Complete information and application forms are available from the State Library website within the grants page at <http://library.state.ak.us/dev/grants.html>. Contact Aja Razumny, 888-820-4525, aja.razumny@alaska.gov, or Patience Frederiksen, 800-776-6566, patience.frederiksen@alaska.gov, if you have any questions. Deadline for the Continuing Education Grant application is Tuesday, January 15, 2008.

SILENT AUCTION

Remember to bring your money to spend on the delightful objects you'll find at the Silent Auction to be held during the Conference! Proceeds will be used to support the AkLA scholarship fund – and your contributions will be tax deductible. We are soliciting items for the auction, so if you have any art (originals, prints, posters, photographs, jewelry, pottery, etc.), books, book-related items, business services, or your library's fund-raising or marketing products (t-shirts, mugs, etc.) to donate, please contact Ingrid Clauson by Friday, February 16, 2008 at 488-6101 or ingrid.clauson@taos.fnsb.lib.ak.us.
