

February 17, 2011

President's Report

Dear Colleagues,

It has been three weeks since my last report. I have been busy on Association business in the following areas:

1. Wrote a letter to DCCED Commissioner Bell concerning the construction grant. She has assigned her aide Scott Ruby to work with us. Our first audioconference will be tomorrow, February 18. Incoming AKLA President Mike Robinson will join the discussion along with our advocacy award winner Judi Andrijanoff.
2. Received the Ak ACLU 40 Heroes of Constitutional Liberties and Civil Rights award at the 40th Anniversary Liberty Awards Gala in Anchorage on January 22, on behalf of the Association. Eight other AkLA members were also in attendance.
3. Wrote a letter to legislators for publication in Newspoke.
4. Notified AkLA Scholarship winner of their award.
5. Notified authors and publisher of AkLA Alaskana award and worked with them to be at the conference.
6. Communicated with conference organizers about details of the conference.
7. Communicated with State Library staff to help organize ANLAMS conference.

Thank you,
David

David Ongley, President
Alaska Library Association